

Rooms & Rate Card 2026

Three rooms, no two alike. Rates effective 1 January 2026 to 31 December 2026, quoted per room per night, excluding GST.

How Our Rates Work

The Glass Hotel has three rooms. That is not a soft launch — it is the size the estate was designed for, and it is why every stay includes attention that a hundred-key property cannot offer.

Room	Nightly rate	Sleeps	Bed	Size	View
The Mist Suite	₹18,500	2	California King	650 sq ft	Mountain crest
The Panorama Pavilion	₹28,000	3	King	850 sq ft	180° valley
The Obsidian Villa	₹52,000	4	Dual king	1,200 sq ft	Forest canopy

What the rate includes

- Artisanal breakfast for every guest in the room, every morning.
- High-speed Starlink Wi-Fi throughout the estate.
- Secure valet parking, and EV charging while it lasts.
- Use of the Himalayan Infinity Pool, fitness centre, yoga studio and gardens.
- Afternoon tea, served in the lounge between 4:00 and 5:30 PM.
- Airport and railhead transfers are not included; see the travel guide.

What is added

GST at 18% on the room tariff. There is no service charge, no resort fee, no 'destination levy' and no charge for early check-in when the room is free. The number we quote plus tax is the number you pay.

Booking direct — by WhatsApp on +91 81015 61812 — is always at least as cheap as any travel platform, and only direct bookings include breakfast.

The Mist Suite — ₹18,500 per night

An intimate enclave of 650 square feet with floor-to-ceiling glass on two sides, which in the early morning puts you inside the cloud rather than above it. It is the room we give couples who have come to be somewhere, rather than to do something.

Detail	Specification
Occupancy	2 guests. No extra bed possible.
Bed	California King, 72 × 84 in, with a choice of pillow firmness
Size	650 sq ft including the terrace
View	Mountain crest, east-facing — sunrise over the ridgeline
Bathroom	Rainfall steam shower, twin vanity, underfloor heating
Outdoor	Private breakfast terrace, seating for two

In this room

- Rainfall steam shower with a bench, and a separate WC.
- Private breakfast terrace where breakfast is served on request at no extra charge.
- A curated art collection — six works by Sikkimese and Darjeeling artists, catalogued in the folder on the desk.
- Espresso machine, Temi tea selection, complimentary minibar soft drinks.
- Smart climate control with heated floors.

Worth knowing

The Mist Suite is on the upper terrace and is reached by fourteen stone steps from the main path. There is no lift to this room. Guests who would prefer level access should book The Panorama Pavilion, which is served by the estate lift.

It is also our quietest room in the evening and our brightest at dawn — east glass and no curtains heavy enough to make it dark. Blackout blinds were added in 2025; the switch is by the bed.

The Panorama Pavilion — ₹28,000 per night

An architectural marvel suspended above the treeline, with an uninterrupted 180-degree view down the valley. It is the room guests ask for by name, and the one that is hardest to get at short notice between October and December.

Detail	Specification
Occupancy	3 guests — 2 adults plus one extra bed
Bed	King, 72 × 78 in. Extra bed available at ₹4,500 per night
Size	850 sq ft plus wrap-around deck
View	180° valley, south and west — sunset side
Bathroom	Walk-in shower and freestanding tub, underfloor heating
Outdoor	Private heated plunge pool, wrap-around observation deck

In this room

- A private heated plunge pool on the deck, held at 34°C year-round and usable in any weather.
- Wrap-around observation deck with two loungers and a dining table for three.
- Dedicated 24/7 butler service — one person, named, for the length of your stay.
- Telescope, and a laminated star chart for the season.
- Level access from the estate lift, and the only room with a step-free bathroom threshold.

Worth knowing

The deck is west-facing, which makes it the best seat on the estate for sunset and the warmest room in the late afternoon. On a clear morning in November the Kanchenjunga range is visible from the bed without sitting up, which is the single most requested photograph our guests take.

The plunge pool is drained and refilled between stays, so it is occasionally at temperature only from mid-afternoon on a check-in day. Tell us your arrival time and it will be ready.

The Obsidian Villa — ₹52,000 per night

A secluded sanctuary of 1,200 square feet, finished in dark local stone, set apart from the main building on its own path. It is the only accommodation on the estate where you can go a full day without seeing another guest.

Detail	Specification
Occupancy	4 guests. No extra bed — the two beds are the capacity.
Beds	Two king beds in two separate bedrooms
Size	1,200 sq ft over two levels
View	Forest canopy, north-west, with valley glimpses
Bathroom	Two — one with a soaking tub set into the window
Outdoor	Indoor/outdoor fireplace lounge, private garden

In this villa

- An indoor/outdoor fireplace lounge — one hearth, open on both sides, lit by the butler each evening from October to March.
- A soaking tub positioned in the window of the upper bathroom, looking directly into the canopy.
- Complimentary minibar and daily high tea served in the villa.
- A private garden with a fire pit and seating for six.
- Two bedrooms with separate climate control, so a family or two couples can share without compromise.

Worth knowing

The villa is a four-minute walk from the restaurant along a lit stone path with a gentle rise. It is the least convenient room on the estate and deliberately so. In-villa dining from the full menu is available at any hour with no tray charge, which most guests in the villa use at least once.

For a family of five or six, the villa plus The Mist Suite is the combination we recommend, and we offer 10% off the pair when both are booked for the same nights.

Seasons, Minimum Stays and Availability

Our rates do not change by season — the number on the rate card is the number all year. What changes is availability and the minimum stay.

Period	Character	Minimum stay
1 Mar – 31 May	Rhododendron season, clear mornings, busy	2 nights
1 Jun – 15 Sep	Monsoon. Green, dramatic, quiet, cheapest to travel	1 night
16 Sep – 15 Dec	Peak. The clearest mountain views of the year	3 nights
16 Dec – 2 Jan	Festive period	4 nights
3 Jan – 28 Feb	Cold, bright, very quiet. Snow above 3,000 m	2 nights

When to come, honestly

For mountain views, late October to early December is unarguable — the air is dry and Kanchenjunga is out most mornings. For flowers and for warmth, April. For solitude and the lowest travel costs, the monsoon, provided you accept that the view may be cloud for three days together and that NH10 occasionally closes. January and February are cold and startlingly clear, and the estate is at its emptiest.

We hold no rooms back for online travel agents. If the WhatsApp concierge says a date is free, it is free.

Honeymoon and anniversary

Tell us at the time of booking and there is no charge for the obvious courtesies — flowers, a decorated room, a bottle of something on ice, and a private table at dinner. The paid celebration set-up above is for guests who want the full arrangement, including cake and a photographer.

Whole-estate buyout

All three rooms, exclusive use of the restaurant, pool and gardens: ₹1,15,000 per night, minimum three nights, for up to nine guests. Events of up to forty people can be hosted on the lower terrace under a buyout. Weddings are quoted individually.

Deposits, Payment Schedule and Group Terms

Individual bookings

- A deposit of one night confirms a booking of any length.
- The balance is settled at check-out, not in advance.
- Stays of seven nights or more: 50% payable 14 days before arrival.
- Festive-period bookings (16 Dec – 2 Jan): 50% deposit, non-refundable within 30 days of arrival.

Groups, buyouts and events

- 25% deposit to confirm, at the time of booking.
- 50% due 30 days before arrival.
- Balance due on departure.
- Cancellation 30+ days ahead: deposit refunded in full.
- Cancellation 15–29 days ahead: 50% of the total value charged.
- Cancellation within 14 days: full value charged.

Corporate accounts

Companies booking more than twelve room-nights a year can be set up on 30-day credit terms with a consolidated monthly GST invoice. Ask the concierge for the account form; approval takes about a week and needs a GSTIN and a PAN.

Every figure on this page excludes GST at 18%, which is applied to the room tariff on the final invoice.
