

Dining at The Glasshouse

The Glasshouse Restaurant, in-room dining, afternoon tea and the bar. Menus and prices current as of January 2026; all prices in ₹, exclusive of GST.

Hours, Reservations and the Room

The Glasshouse Restaurant sits inside glass walls that fold open onto the valley in fair weather. It seats twenty-eight, which means resident guests never need a booking and outside diners usually do.

Service	Hours	Notes
Breakfast	7:00 AM – 10:30 AM	Included for resident guests
All-day menu	11:00 AM – 6:00 PM	Lighter dishes, served indoors and on the terrace
Afternoon tea	4:00 PM – 5:30 PM	Included for resident guests
Dinner	7:00 PM – 10:30 PM	Last order 10:00 PM
In-room dining	24 hours	Full menu until 10:30 PM, night menu after
The bar	12:00 PM – 12:00 AM	Resident guests only after 11:00 PM

Reservations

Resident guests have a table whenever they want one. Non-resident diners are welcome at lunch and dinner by reservation, on WhatsApp at +91 81015 61812, and we hold roughly a third of the room for them. Dinner on a Saturday in peak season should be booked a few days out.

Dress

There is no dress code. It is a mountain hotel; people arrive in walking boots and nobody minds. We ask only that swimwear stays at the pool.

Children

Children are welcome at every service. There is a children's menu, high chairs, and the kitchen will cook simply and quickly for a tired child at any hour.

Breakfast

Breakfast is included with every direct booking, for every guest in the room, and is served between 7:00 and 10:30 AM. It is à la carte with a small buffet of fruit, curd, house granola, breads and preserves — not a chafing-dish affair.

From the kitchen, cooked to order

- Sikkimese breakfast — phagshapa or vegetable curry, rice, gundruk soup, achar. The dish the staff eat.
- Thukpa — hand-pulled noodles in clear broth, with chicken or vegetables. Excellent on a cold morning.
- Momos, eight pieces — steamed or pan-fried; chicken, pork or vegetable, with tomato-dalle chutney.
- Aloo paratha or plain paratha with white butter, curd and pickle.
- Masala dosa with sambar and two chutneys.
- Eggs, any style — omelette, scrambled, poached, fried, shakshuka, or an egg white preparation.
- Full English — eggs, sausage, bacon, grilled tomato, mushrooms, beans, toast. Pork or chicken sausage.
- Pancakes or French toast with local honey and buckwheat flour from Ravangla.
- Avocado on sourdough, poached egg, chilli oil, lime.

Drinks with breakfast

Temi estate teas (black, green, white and the second-flush muscatel), single-origin Coorg coffee as espresso or filter, fresh juices pressed to order, and hot chocolate made with Darjeeling milk chocolate.

Breakfast can be served in your room, or on your own terrace, at no additional charge. Order the night before or call the kitchen when you wake.

Dinner — Sikkimese and Himalayan

The half of the menu we would rather you ordered from. The vegetables come from the estate terraces and from Sikkim's organic farms — the state has been fully organic since 2016, which is not marketing but law.

Dish	Description	Price
Gundruk ko jhol	Fermented leafy greens, clear broth, radish, timmur pepper	₹450
Phagshapa	Pork belly with radish and dried chilli — the state dish	₹850
Kinema curry	Fermented soybean, tomato, served with red rice	₹550
Sael roti thali	Rice-flour bread, dal, seasonal sabzi, achar, curd	₹750
Momos, ten pieces	Chicken, pork, vegetable or cheese; steamed or fried	₹520
Thenthuk	Hand-torn noodles, bone broth, winter greens	₹620
Nettle soup	Sisnu, foraged on the estate, with yak cheese cream	₹420
Churpi with chilli	Hardened yak cheese, slow-cooked, dalle chilli	₹480
Trout, Teesta river	Pan-seared, fermented bamboo shoot, butter sauce	₹1,250
Yak curry	Slow-braised, cardamom, cinnamon, red rice	₹1,400

The tasting menu

Seven courses through the Sikkimese year, ₹3,800 per person, ₹5,600 with a tea pairing. Twenty-four hours' notice, and the whole table must take it. It is the best thing the kitchen does.

Dinner — Global

For guests who have eaten momos for three days and would like something else, and for children.

Dish	Description	Price
Burrata	With estate tomatoes, basil, aged balsamic	₹950
Wild mushroom risotto	Himalayan mushrooms, parmesan, truffle oil	₹1,150
Roast chicken	Half bird, lemon and thyme, potatoes, greens	₹1,300
Lamb shank	Braised six hours, red wine, root vegetables	₹1,750
Sirloin steak, 250 g	Imported, char-grilled, peppercorn or blue cheese	₹2,400
Pasta of the day	Fresh, made in-house; ask the server	₹980
Margherita or funghi pizza	Wood-fired, 12 inch	₹850
Caesar salad	With or without chicken	₹650 / ₹850
Club sandwich and fries	The all-day standby	₹720
Children's plate	Pasta, grilled chicken, or a small thali	₹400

Desserts, all ₹550

Sea buckthorn tart. Dark chocolate delice with Temi tea ice cream. Sikkimese cardamom crème brûlée. Buckwheat honey cake. A plate of estate cheeses with churpi and quince, ₹750.

In-Room Dining and the Night Menu

In-room dining runs 24 hours, from the full restaurant menu until 10:30 PM and from a night menu after that. There is no tray charge and no service charge at any hour.

After 10:30 PM

- Thukpa or thenthuk — ₹620
- Momos, ten pieces — ₹520
- Club sandwich and fries — ₹720
- Margherita pizza — ₹850
- Soup of the day with bread — ₹420
- Cheese and cold cuts board — ₹950
- Fresh fruit plate — ₹350
- Instant noodles, prepared properly, for whoever needs them — ₹250

The minibar

Soft drinks, juices, still and sparkling water, Temi teas and the coffee capsules are complimentary and restocked daily. Beer, wine and spirits in the minibar are charged. The Obsidian Villa's minibar is complimentary in full, alcohol included.

Dining on your own terrace

Any meal can be laid on your deck, terrace or in the villa garden at no charge. In cold months the team will bring heaters and blankets. For a set-piece dinner — table, lanterns, a private server for the evening — see private dining, ₹12,000 per couple.

Afternoon Tea and the Temi Tea List

Afternoon tea is served in the lounge from 4:00 to 5:30 PM and is included for resident guests. It is a proper tea — savouries, scones with clotted cream, and small cakes — and it is the reason several of our guests skip lunch.

Temi Tea Estate

Temi is Sikkim's only tea estate, planted in 1969 on a south-facing slope about 60 km from here, and it is organic by state law rather than by choice. We buy directly from the estate and we pour it properly — leaf, not bags, timed, and never stewed.

Tea	Character	Pot
Temi first flush	Light, floral, bright — the spring picking	₹380
Temi second flush	Muscatel, fuller, the one to try	₹420
Temi green	Grassy, gentle, low tannin	₹350
Temi white	Delicate, rare — a small annual pick	₹650
Masala chai	Made with milk, cardamom, ginger, on the stove	₹250
Butter tea (suja)	Salted, churned, Tibetan. An acquired taste	₹300
Sea buckthorn tisane	Sharp, orange, high in vitamin C	₹320

Boxes of Temi leaf are sold at reception at estate prices, ₹600–₹2,200, and we will vacuum-pack for a flight.

The Bar

Small, glass-walled, west-facing, open from noon to midnight. Non-resident guests are welcome until 11:00 PM.

Local and Indian

- Sikkimese chhaang — fermented millet, drunk hot through a bamboo straw, ₹350. Order it once; you will either love it or have a story.
- Old Monk, Dansberg beer, Hit and Sikkim-brewed lagers, ₹250–₹400.
- Indian single malts — Amrut, Paul John, Rampur, ₹650–₹1,400 a measure.
- Indian wines by the glass from Sula and Fratelli, ₹550.
- Craft gin from Goa — Greater Than, Stranger & Sons, ₹600.

House cocktails, all ₹750

- The Cloud Line — gin, sea buckthorn, timmur pepper, soda.
- Dalle Sour — whisky, lime, honey, a whisper of dalle chilli.
- Temi Highball — second-flush tea, vodka, tonic, lemon.
- Cardamom Old Fashioned — bourbon, Sikkim cardamom, orange.
- Zero-proof — the same four, made without alcohol, ₹450.

Wine

A short list of about thirty bottles, mostly French, Italian and Indian, ₹2,800–₹14,000. Corkage on your own bottle is ₹1,500 in the restaurant and nothing in your room.

Sikkim's legal drinking age is 18. Dry days are observed on national holidays as notified by the state; the bar closes but in-room service of previously purchased bottles continues.

Dietary Requirements and Allergens

Tell us when you book, and again when you order. The kitchen is small enough that the chef will come out and talk to you, and that is usually the fastest way to get this right.

Requirement	What we can do	Notice
Vegetarian	Half the menu; no compromise dishes	None
Vegan	Full alternative menu, including desserts	None
Jain — no root vegetables	A dedicated set menu, cooked separately	12 hours
Gluten-free	Rice, buckwheat and millet breads; most curries	None
Dairy-free	Most Sikkimese dishes are naturally dairy-free	None
Nut allergy	Kitchen deep-cleans a station; no nut oils used	12 hours
Halal	Chicken and mutton sourced halal on request	24 hours
Kosher	We cannot certify. Vegetarian and sealed items only	—
Diabetic / low sugar	Sugar-free desserts, low-GI red rice	None
Baby food	Steamed, puréed, unsalted, at any hour	None

An honest word on cross-contamination

This is one kitchen with one set of surfaces. We can clean down a station, dedicate pans and change gloves, and we do this often and carefully. We cannot promise an allergen-free environment in the way a specialist kitchen could. If an allergy is anaphylactic, please talk to us before you book so we can tell you honestly whether we can keep you safe.